WEEKEND AT THE MOVIES

From: CRU

You may request any film be shown for a weekend movie; however, a film may only be shown as long as it meets the DOC's movie criteria as well as copyright rules (Swank).

Due to the volume of requests received, I am unable to respond and will be adding the movie requested to the list of movies that need to have eligibility determined.

Remember, there are several factors that have to be considered when selecting the movies, and these factors vary at each institution. This means that just because a movie was shown at another Institution it may not meet criteria to be shown here. The movie selection process is subject to change without notice.

I will try to ensure there is a combination of movie genre and release date for those being shown. Please remember that there are many residents here at Coffee Creek with many different tastes in movies.

Upcoming Movies

1/7/2017	The Great Gilly Hopkins
1/8/2017	Southside with You
1/14/2017	The Magnificent Seven
1/15/2017	Pete's Dragon
1/16/2017	RACE (Holiday Movie)

RECYCLING NEWS

From Green Team

CCCM women are not the only ones who get to experience “out-planting” at conservation sights to help feed the endangered Oregon Silverspot Butterfly. Men at WCCF & SRCI are growing sagebrush, milkweed & bitterbrush in order to rejuvenate life in areas burned by forest fires and other natural sights in need of renewal. Plus CCCM’s habitat restoration crew planted 60,000 violets & nectar plugs at the Nestucca Bay National Wildlife Refuge just over a month ago! Thanks to the women who grow plant life to nourish the endangered butterfly and the men working hard for other ecological needs, we are on our way to success in protecting the land and the beauty of the Earth for us, our families and the generations to come!

When cooped up inside and unable to do yard time don’t neglect the benefits of nature. Studies have shown that those who enjoy visions of nature are more apt to have health benefits. Hospital patients in particular, lying in hospital beds with a view of tree life outside their windows were found to have a quicker recovery time as well compared to those with a more industrial view. Therefore, continue to enjoy the Nature Imagery Scenes on Ch. 50 for peace of mind and to relish in the beauty of the Earth. Especially during this cold & flu season, take advantage of nature’s positive effect on your health today!

Remember, you are protecting nature each time you bypass the garbage can and aim for the recycling bins instead. Creating a more sustainable environment is not as easy as most of us would like it to be. That’s why each contribution you make reduces growth in landfills and ecological damage to our planet. Take a moment of your time and drop off your recyclables in the bins provided.

Questions? Comments? Let us know your ideas! All of those great ideas shared at meals, dayroom tables, and even Coffee Talk 1/5/2017

between roommates can’t be heard unless you a drop a kyte! Do so today to the Green Team/Ms. Fitts!☺

LIBRARY NOTES

If you have books to return, and the return box is full, you must bring your books with you. During the closure, the book return boxes will fill up quickly. If you return a book to the return box, be sure it goes all the way into the box. If your book cannot go all the way in, you must take it back to your cell or bunk. DO NOT leave it on top of the return box.

Let me say that again. If the book you are returning cannot fully fit in the return box, you MUST take the book back to your cell or bunk. YOU are responsible for books checked out in your name. Leaving a book or books on top of the return boxes is a potential problem, since someone else can pick up the book and lose or damage it. YOU will be held responsible.

Any books left on top or not fully inside the book return box will be checked for the name of the person who checked it out and that person will have a 2 week ban from the library. Each offense will increase the length of your ban by 2 weeks. These sanctions are now standard operating procedure. Be mindful of your actions so that you can continue receiving the privilege of coming to check out books.

Remember, your name = your responsibility.

TAKING STEPS WITH NONVIOLENT COMMUNICATION AND FAMILY CONSTELLATION

From Ms. Roach, Lifeskills

A Saturday workshop with Sarah Peyton (10 year NVC teacher at Coffee Creek)
Feb. 4, 2016
8-10:45 and 1-4
Room M-111

Join Sarah Peyton and a crew of 6+ volunteers to take steps to explore family stories, honor our ancestors, look at their effect and receive their support for present-day issues.

Constellation work lets us to see ourselves, our present and intergenerational families, our home countries and histories, and our larger social systems in context. Participating in this work allows us to honor what has kept us from living with others with ease, and supports us to live in integrity with ourselves.

In constellations, we lay out a three-dimensional picture of what we know about whatever issue we are working with. We look at orientation, distance, where eyes are looking, what words are being used, and what emotions are being expressed.

This work opens the door to understanding the incredible amount of information that's coming in through our bodies. As this comprehension deepens, we realise that we can effectively partner with them for conscious movement in the world. We start to realise that we can go to the body as a source of wisdom and as a leader and guide in what is working and what's important.

To attend, please send an inmate communication to Ms. Roach in Lifeskills by January 24.

Kate Brown, Governor

Oregon Department of Corrections

Office of the Director
2575 Center Street NE
Salem, OR 97301-4667

Date: December 15, 2016

To: All DOC Adults in Custody

From: Colette S. Peters, Director

Subject: Inmate Financial Accountability Workgroup

As you may know, I am a firm believer in accountability, opportunities for positive change, and efforts to improve transition and re-entry. This comes in many forms. One part is financial accountability. For example, satisfying your victim restitution and other financial obligations (like child support and civil judgments) is part of accountability. It provides a sense of accomplishment. It will also help you when you return home because it will be one less thing to worry about.

I also know that satisfying debt while incarcerated can be difficult. Keeping this in mind, I want to let you know of a proposed solution that will help you pay off your debt and not break the bank.

You may recall that legislation was introduced in 2015 that would have resulted in DOC collecting funds from inmate trust accounts for certain restitution (HB 2761 and HB 2322A). While both bills did not pass, DOC committed to discussing the issue with stakeholders.

So, we established the Inmate Financial Accountability Workgroup. The group included representatives from DOC, labor organizations, crime victims groups, community corrections, the Oregon District Attorneys Association, Oregon Criminal Defense Lawyers Association, Oregon Judicial Department, and the Oregon Department of Justice. The group also included representatives from Oregon CURE, who presented a voice for you and your families.

The workgroup met several times to discuss issues related to the collection of inmate funds. The workgroup developed recommendations for how DOC could collect from inmate funds to help you pay off your debt.

The workgroup's recommendation is for DOC to collect the following from each deposit into your trust accounts:

- 10 percent for court-ordered obligations or financial obligations imposed in a criminal action that are collected by the court (such as restitution, criminal fines and fees, and civil judgments). If you don't owe any of these, DOC would not collect 10 percent.

- 5 percent for re-entry savings (up to $500). Once re-entry savings reaches $500, DOC would collect:
  - 15 percent for court-ordered obligations (if you still owe).
  - If no other debt is owed, you could choose to continue making 5 percent deposits into your re-entry savings account.

This concept would:

- Apply to all adults in DOC custody;
- Include discretionary monetary awards made by DOC to inmates under the Performance Recognition and Awards System (PRAS) and funds sent in from individuals or entities; and
- Exclude Tribal funds, veteran disability funds, Prison Industries Enhancement Certification Program funds, funds dedicated for medical, dental, and optical expenses, and funds dedicated for emergency trips.

The workgroup's recommendations will require legislative action in 2017 in order to take effect. Even with legislation, DOC will need some time to put systems in place to support the collection of funds. So, any changes would not take place for more than a year. Again, this will require legislative approval.

I encourage you to talk with your families about these proposed changes. We will keep you updated as the workgroup's recommendations move forward.

State of Oregon
Department of Corrections Commissary

Date: December 29, 2016

You must include the unused soda tickets and a receipt as proof of purchase. The receipt may not be more than 90 days old from the date of request.

Commissary will not issue credit for damaged tickets or issue credit if the soda machine takes your ticket without dispensing a soda.

Please write legibly and include your full name, SID number and institution when submitting a commissary order form, communication or suggestion form to Commissary.

Commissary appreciates all suggestions and requests. Unfortunately, due to the extreme volume of suggestions and requests Commissary receives, we cannot respond to each request individually. Any shoe over 30 days old will not be replaced or repaired. Please do not try to return shoes that are over 30 days old; they will be returned at owner's expense. Vendor offers a 30-day warranty for manufacturer defects. Commissary is not the warrantor. No manufacturer warranty applies. ODOC adults in custody are not allowed to return their shoes to the manufacturer for repair or replacement. DISCLAIMER: Every effort has been made to show and describe the merchandise and all information as accurately as possible. However, many manufacturers make changes in design, color and style during the year. We regret any changes that may occur. All shoes are subject to DOC approval and can be removed at any time. *** Above information copied directly from the Oregon Shoe Catalog***

You are cordially invited to join us for the January 2017 Family Preservation Project Speakers Series

Friday January 13th 1:30-4:00 pm

We will be screening the award winning film: "The If Project", featuring women currently and formerly incarcerated at the Washington Correctional Center for Women

About The IF Project

We are a collaboration of Law Enforcement, currently and previously incarcerated adults and community partners focused on intervention, prevention and reduction in incarceration and recidivism. Our work is built upon — and inspired by — people sharing their personal experiences surrounding the issues of incarceration.

This project is based on the question:

If there was something someone could have said or done that would have changed the path that led you here, what would it have been?

This is an Open Call Out. All are welcome to come.

*Please note, the speaker series was previously held on the first Friday, and will now be on the second Friday of every month.
