Help Break the Cycle

New Directions Northwest runs several Drug and Alcohol Programs, including the Elkhorn Adolescent Drug and Alcohol Center (EADAC). EADAC recently started a new program to encourage teamwork and leadership through positive role-modeling. The new program is through the Boy Scouts of America called Venturing, that teaches teamwork and leadership skills through outdoor activities like camping. They have asked for some financial support as it is difficult for them to raise funds. Their funds are already strained by the cost of training materials, uniforms and other activities.

Gift Bags

GIFT BAG GIVE BACK

At this time of year, make a difference in a child's life. Give back to your community by bringing joy to a little heart on Christmas morning. You have the opportunity to donate funds through a CD28 that will go towards items that will be put in gift bags for children in the local community. If every adult in custody at PRCF donated just one dollar, that would help 50 kids. So imagine how many kids we can reach out to by giving more. For seven dollars you can sponsor your own child with a gift bag of gloves, hats, socks, toys, and goodies. The gift bags will be customized to include items that will be most useful and enjoyed by the age group who will receive the bags.

The gift bags will be going to foster kids, youths involved in the Juvenile Department, Recovery Village (the mommy and me program), and the domestic violence shelter, as well as other similar organizations. The community and agencies will know that this project was the result of the generosity and efforts of the adults in custody at Powder River Correctional Facility. Help us bring happiness and joy to a child in need this holiday season!

So fill out a CD28 to activities account #2460 (GIFT BAGS)

My name is Joshua Sanchez I'm 35 years old, I have 2 daughters, a son and a wife, I'm a skilled concrete man, and I have everything a man could ever want. So why am I in prison?

I'm in prison because I'm an alcoholic and I have 4 DUI's my record! I thought that just because I had a good job and the family life, and even went to church most of the time, I was better than other alcoholics; and my addiction wasn't as bad as theirs. I was wrong! Addiction doesn't discriminate! My perception of reality was distorted; I thought I was a great father and a wonderful husband. Well, a great father and a wonderful husband is home with his family, not in prison. This was my thinking and man was it completely wrong.

I was enjoying a nice day with my family when I decided to have a couple beers; this is where I went wrong. The first thing we lose when we use is our judgment! My children were hungry so I told them I'd go get them some pizza (no big deal right?) that's what I said to myself. Now keep in mind that I've had a few drinks and 3 prior DUI's. I definitely wasn't supposed to be driving! I looked at my girls, told them I love them and that daddy would be right back. Well I never made it back!

I was pulled over for driving too fast. They charged me with another DUI and I was sentenced to 25 months in prison. There is not a day I don't see my two little girls face's looking at me and expecting their daddy to just go and come back. It kills me to imagine how they felt and what they were thinking and my wife waking up and her husband is now gone.

This is who I was in my addiction, selfish and only cared about what I wanted. Part of my sentence was the A.I.P program and all I knew was that I could get a time cut and maybe some help while I was there. This was the first time I was separated from my family for this long of a time. I knew something had to change, I needed to change! My family deserves better from me and I deserve better from myself.

I'm now three months into the program and I love every minute of it. The program has helped me really understand my addiction and the cycle I was in. I'm learning new ways of thinking and behaving that are going to benefit me in the long run. I'm proud of whom I'm becoming; who I was created to be. Most of all my family is proud of me now.
