2nd Annual SRCI Care For Kids
Sponsored by: WICAP AND SECRET SANTA

This is for NCI Level 1, 2, & 3.
This is a fundraiser for the families and children of Treasure Valley.
The money will be used for buying each family a Christmas dinner, clothes for adult family members, and every child at least one outfit, 1 coat and hopefully 2 to 3 toys.
The top 150 SRCI inmates that donate the most money out of each complex will be given a soda, bag of popcorn, and will be put on the call out for the movie event in December.
Make sure your CD 28 is signed and correct amount is listed.

This is a great opportunity to get involved with a local community fundraiser. The average cost per family is around $350 and we would like to be able to sponsor 15 families, so we are aiming for $5,250.00 in donations to this cause. If every inmate donated an average of $3 we would raise over $6,000. We understand that this is a lot for some, so donate what you can and show the kids of the Treasure Valley that you care.
There will be a special surprise for the top donators out of each complex. It will be worth your donation!
Last year you raised $2700.00. That is so awesome to see you guys pull together for these kids.
We supplied 7 Families and fed 19 families meals.
Thanks!
From SRCI

Only the first 60 people who follow through with the process will be admitted to the class. Thank you.
As you know, the annual art contest has been on hold. Many of you have waited patiently for the contest to resume and that time is finally at hand. Judging will be held in July, and the results will be made known in August. Once the judging is done and the selections are made, the winning pieces will be displayed until September, 2015.

Some of you would rather have your artwork mailed out now instead of continuing through to the end of the contest period. Just send me a request and I’ll mail it out per your instructions. Please do not ask your friends or family members to call regarding your art.

There is still time to submit artwork for this contest – the deadline is June 30, 2014. You may submit any picture that meets the criteria.

- This art contest is open to all inmates regardless of incentive level, with the expectation that you be misconduct-free for the six months prior to the last date for submission, and have been authorized by your institution to compete.
- You may submit a maximum of ten (10) pictures.
- All displayed art will be framed, but only the 1st, 2nd & 3rd place pictures will remain framed when mailed out. All other frames will be re-used for future contests.

Topics can be as broad as your imagination, but there are a few restrictions:

- Your work may be of any content you choose, except where it violates department rules; i.e., no security threat references, violence, nudity or sexually implicit or explicit material, or promotion of criminal activities, etc., will be allowed. Additionally, pictures may be rejected if the content is not suitable for display in a public building.
- Your original artwork only - no embellished photocopies, coloring book pages, tracings of pictures, or photographs, etc.
- No duplicates (this includes abstract pictures with only minor changes).
- No previous DOC Inmate Art Contest entries.

By entering this contest you agree to allow your work to be displayed at the Department of Corrections for the entire display period. Please do not submit work that you have also promised to a gallery, museum, etc. for the same timeframe.

Prizes* will be awarded as follows:

- 1st Prize - $100.00; 2nd Prize - $50.00; 3rd Prize - $25.00;
- Honorable Mention - $10.00; Chosen for Display - $5.00;
- Contestants may win one of the 1st, 2nd or 3rd prizes; one Honorable Mention; and one Chosen for Display (A total of three prizes is possible). Submission doesn’t guarantee your work will be selected by the judges.

In addition to the monetary awards...

- You may offer your work for sale. If an item sells, the department will post the amount to your Trust Account. The buyer will receive the picture after the full display period. If your picture is not displayed, the buyer will take possession once the judging has been completed.
- After the full display period, or if your work is not displayed, all unsold art will be forwarded to a person of your choosing (No art will be returned to the institution).

To enter the contest, submit a request to participate to the superintendent’s office. Once your participation has been approved, submit your artwork as follows:

Your submission(s) must arrive at the Dome Building by June 30, 2014. Each piece must include the following on the back of the picture:

- Your full name and SID#
- The title of your piece (essential for tracking purposes).
- If your artwork is for sale, include a set price. No “or best offers”, etc. We cannot negotiate prices for you or direct people to a third party for sales. Entries without a set price will be noted as “not for sale”.
- Full name and complete address of the person to mail your artwork to if it is not sold or is not for sale.

You are responsible for any costs associated with forwarding your artwork to the address below. Please package your entry with cardboard or other approved material to ensure your artwork is not damaged during transit.

Your friends and family members are welcome to view the art on display at the Dome Building (address below), Monday – Friday, 8:30 am to 4:00 pm (closed on state holidays). They can call 503-945-9090 for directions. Photos of the artwork are not permitted.
