WEEKEND AT THE MOVIES

From: CRU

You may request any film be shown for a weekend movie; however, a film may only be shown as long as it meets the DOC's movie criteria as well as copyright rules (Swank).

Due to the volume of requests received, I am unable to respond and will be adding the movie requested to the list of movies that need to have eligibility determined.

Remember, there are several factors that have to be considered when selecting the movies, and these factors vary at each institution. This means that just because a movie was shown at another Institution it may not meet criteria to be shown here. The movie selection process is subject to change without notice.

I will try to ensure there is a combination of movie genre and release date for those being shown. Please remember that there are many residents here at Coffee Creek with many different tastes in movies.

VISITING APPLICATIONS

From Mr. Robrscheib, CRU

Once you have submitted an application, whether it was hand written or on the kiosk, please do not keep re-submitting applications for the same visitor. The process for a visitor application can take up to 6 to 8 weeks. Once the visitor is approved or denied, you will receive notification of the application status. Submitting more than one application per visitor is not productive and will not speed up the process.

PREA HOTLINE CALLS

From DOC

We have received some reports of Inspector General PREA hotline calls being disconnected inadvertently by the telephone provider. If this has and /or does happen to you please contact the Inspector General's office and/or Institution PREA Compliance Manager and inform us of the approximate date/time of the occurrence. Currently the Inspector General hotlines only accept a maximum of three minutes on recording. Currently, once that three minute limit is reached, you will hear a message that says "your call has been disconnected". This means the message has been sent.

DOC is committed to providing multiple reporting methods. You can also report by:

- Reporting directly to any staff member, contractor or volunteer
- Writing the Governor's Office (you may ask to remain confidential) at:
State Capital Room 160
900 Court St.
Salem, OR 97301
- Ask a friend or family member to contact DOC
- Drop an inmate communication in any mailbox
- Use the grievance system to file a complaint.

PREA

From DOC

Prison Rape Elimination Act (PREA Information)

The Oregon Department of Corrections (ODOC) has a zero tolerance policy for sexual abuse, sexual harassment and for retaliation for reporting an incident. You may report in person to any staff, through an inmate communication, through the grievance system, by calling the PREA hotline by dialing 9 from any inmate phone.

Filing an Anonymous PREA Report

If you are uneasy about filing a PREA allegation, you may file an anonymous report with an outside agency.

You may write to:

Governor's Office of Constituent Services
900 Court Street NE, Suite 160
Salem, Oregon 97301

Please indicate in the beginning of your letter you are filing a PREA allegation and you are requesting to remain anonymous. The Governor's Office will refer all anonymous allegations to the DOC PREA Coordinator to assure an investigation is completed based off the information that is provided.

Community-Based PREA Advocacy (Support) Program

ODOC has partnered with community based, confidential advocates of sexual abuse victims to provide services to inmates.

Inmates at ODOC who have experienced sexual abuse may reach a community-based advocate by dialing 711 inmate telephone systems, or may request a private call through the PREA Compliance Manager at the facility. Advocates provide victims of sexual abuse information about their options, resources, information and emotional support. There is no charge for calls to advocates.

Role of an Advocate:

- Provide confidential support and crisis intervention
- Inform you about the investigation and medical examination process
- Educate you about healing from sexual abuse
- Offer resources and referrals

Advocates will:

- Not tell you what to do
- Not communicate with the institution unless you request them to do so and sign a release
- Not provide legal advice

Community-based advocacy centers provide sexual abuse support to people of all genders. Community-based advocates will not report unless you request them to do so and if you sign a release of information.

DOC is committed to providing inmates with avenues to seek assistance. Below are additional resources:

Just Detention International Headquarters
3325 Wilshire Blvd., Suite 340
Los Angeles, CA 90010

The community-based advocacy crisis line is for individuals needing assistance coping with sexual abuse related issues and should not be used for other purposes.

Coffee Talk 12/07/2017

Telephone calls and mail with community-based advocacy centers is considered privileged communication and will be handled similar to legal calls/official mail.

If you have any other questions regarding PREA, you may ask any staff member, write the PREA Compliance Manager at your institution, or you may write:

E. Sage, PREA Coordinator
Oregon Department of Corrections
2575 Center St.NE

BIRTH CERTIFICATES AND SOCIAL SECURITY CARDS

From DOC

Many already know how important it is to have your birth certificate and social security card, but it's worth repeating and even "kyting" about. Aside from the benefits of having your birth certificate while you're still inside, both pieces of identification are essential to your success after release because they are needed to get a job, open a bank account or cast a check, and apply for state or military benefits.

As you approach your release, if the DOC does not have a birth certificate or social security card on file for you and if you may be eligible to receive one provided by the DOC, you will receive a kyte from the institution records office. Those approaching age 65 will also be sent a kyte if the DIC does not have a birth certificate on record. The kyte will tell you which piece of identification is missing and give you the means to start the application process. Just fill in the information and forward the kyte to your institution records office. It's as simple as that!

NOTE: To eliminate duplications that could delay your application process, please complete and return only one each of the birth certificate and social security card kyte forms.

The order process will be done through the Kiosk. You must be a level 2 or 3 to participate. No Cell-ins, LOPS or disciplinary housing can participate. For those of you who may not be familiar with the CCCF Butterfly Lab Program, it was founded this spring. The DOC Sustainability Office and CCCF partnered with US

Fish and Wildlife Services and the Oregon Zoo to rear an endangered butterfly from the Willamette Valley called the Taylor's Checkerspot butterfly. The lab tech crew is proud to be the only other lab in Oregon, besides the Oregon Zoo, to be dedicated to rearing this endangered animal species. The Oregon Taylor's Checkerspot is in peril due to urban and agricultural development over the years. This species is only found in three areas of North America: Denman Island in Canada, Fort Lewis/Pudget Sound area of Washington State and in the grasslands of Corvallis, Oregon. This butterfly was listed as endangered in 2013 under the US endangered Species Act, but carries no protection in the state of Oregon.

The lab is located in H Unit and currently has 5 inmate lab technicians, who are being trained by Ronda Naseth. She is a butterfly keeper from the Oregon Zoo. Right now, the larvae are in hibernation, which is called diapause. These animals are in a diapause shed that is located on G/H yard. The survival rate of these larvae is currently at 93%. The lab tech's and Zoo officials are proud of this success rate, they were only anticipating 50% survival rate.

Once the diapause state is over and the larvae wake up, the lab tech crew will bring caterpillars back into the lab and start feeding them with Plantago leaves. The caterpillars will be cared for until they reach their chrysalis stage. US Fish and Wildlife Services will collect the larvae at that time and take them to their protected habitat before they pupate and hatch into beautiful butterflies. Once they lay eggs, the process starts all over again

SUSTAINABILITY NEWS

From Green Team

You may be surprised to know there are baby butterfly eggs sleeping in the storage units on G/H Yard. Tucked into tissue-made pockets, the CCCF lab workers place the 15 larva, often siblings, into each little sleeping bag to cuddle up for the long winter. The little larva will hopefully not awaken till they're ready to emerge in February or March of next year. The lab had a 93% success rate with the Taylor's Checkerspot Butterflies when they went through their first diapause stage inside the Lab. However, being outside amongst the women with the busy activity of yard life could awaken them prematurely not allowing them to develop. That's why it's crucial not to forget and place any items on the storage units. Natural changes in the climate, microscopically small, give them cues of when to act; and the women check their temperature and humidity levels weekly.

Normally raised on Prairie Lands, these little animals are accustomed to peaceful, quiet landscapes and will return to such upon release. Traveling with employees of the U.S. Fish & Wildlife to Crestmont Farms in Corvallis and the Bezell Memorial Forest in Philomath, OR, they will be released to live, propagate and prosper in the environmentally protected landsites which are spreading across the U.S.

Thanks to vigilant efforts by the Butterfly Lab workers and those in Minimum, this is just the beginning of environmentally-sound programs housed at our facility. With proper care and success of such programming, we can look forward to welcoming additional opportunities.

Promoting sustainability saves money, natural resources and the earth for our children to inherit. The beauty of the earth will always go through seasonal stages but with change increasing in the climate, that could be good or bad depending on our action. Join us in reducing, reusing and recycling, and help us make this earth a better place. If you have any questions please let us know and kyte the Green Team, Ms. Fitts.

VERY IMPORTANT LIBRARY NOTES

From Ms. Wheeler, Library Coordinator

---

1. Library workers do not work 24 hours a day. They have been given a direct order to not discuss legal work on the units. If you have an urgent issue, please ask your unit officer to call the library.
2. DO NOT leave books on top of the book return boxes. You may earn a permanent ban from the library if this practice is continued.

3. Leave ONLY library books in the book return boxes. You may earn consequences from Education or the Chapel.
4. We have many people who have overdue library books and excess library books (more than 5 items). Effective December 1, 2017, you will not be allowed to check out books if you have overdue or excess items. We need to have the book(s) in our hands before you will be allowed this privilege again. This means we will not accept "I put it in the book return box" as a way to be allowed to check out a book.
5. We are making a change to the leisure library schedule. Effective November 27, 2017, we will call G/H on Tuesday morning, C/D Tuesday afternoon and J/K on Thursday morning. I realize this will create some work conflicts, and I am on top of worker line requests. I appreciate your patience as we try this new schedule.

Law Library notes:

1. You MUST put your schedule on your kyte when you are requesting a law library appointment. If you do not, your kyte will be returned unanswered.
2. Effective December 1, 2017, we will no longer provide loaners, unless you are in special housing. You may request an appointment to come review information on the inmate network and take notes, or you may print items and pay for them at $0.10 per page. You MUST have money in your trust account for this print.
3. If the library is closed, your appointment will be rescheduled. There is no need to send another kyte.
