Questions and Answers

Here are the most asked questions when it comes to PREA:

1. How can I report a PREA allegation?
Answer: You can report an allegation to any staff member, the OIC, PREA grievance, PREA hotline, inmate communication and by third party.
2. If I use the PREA hotline or advocacy hotline are my calls confidential.
Answer: Yes, once you enter your pin number and press 9 for the PREA hotline or 711 to talk to a victim advocate, the phone system will not record the conversation or log that the number was called.
3. What is the buzzer sound I hear in all housing blocks, units and infirmary?
Answer: That buzzer sound is to make all inmates aware that a staff member of the opposite gender has entered the area.
4. Is there a resource outside of the institution I can talk to about PREA confidentially?
Answer: Yes, the Center for Hope and Safety is an advocacy group that is there for you 24/7.
The role of the advocate is to –
Amplify the victim's voice
Redirect victim blaming
Provide emotional support
Explain options for reporting
Help victim process decision (not guide, recommend or suggest what is right)
Provide resources and referrals
Sit through forensic exam / investigatory interview if desired by the victim.
Support family and friends of the victim

You can reach the advocate by dialing 711. The calls are confidential, not logged or recorded.
Single Cell Housing

All requests for Single Cell Housing must come through the Group Living Captain.

BHS and medical staff input, as well as facility needs, will be taken into account when deciding who to place into the single cells that become available.

Single cell housing priority will be:

1. Medical concerns
2. BHS concerns
3. Administrative concerns
4. Inmate convenience move requests

Once an inmate is housed in a single cell, if a higher priority placement concern occurs, the inmate may be removed. Issues with inmate conduct may result in removal from a single cell.

Each year the Car Show picks a charity to sponsor. This year our Charity will be 5 Rock Ranch who helps the fatherless and single mom's and their children. During the show, we will be auctioning off several items to guests and all those funds will be sent to 5 Rock Ranch. In addition, we will have a donations booth at the show so anyone that would like to donate to 5 Rock Ranch can. All CD-28s will be payable to the Car Show and once cleared, that money will be sent to 5 Rock Ranch.

There will be several tents on the yard during the show. With the exception of a few for specific booths, the rest of the tents are meant to provide shade to the guests and the Car Show workers that are visiting with the guests. Water will be available in cambros on the yard for everyone. Bottled water will be available for the guests.

This year's photos cost $1.00 for a 4x6 single print and won't require photo tickets. The photographers will each have a Green Pass with a number and green hat and will be assigned to rows of vehicles/bikes. To get a picture simply form a line at the end of each row and wait for the photographer. Note: AIC's should keep track of the Photographers' number on their ID, as it will make it easier when ordering. All of the same yard photo rules apply to car show photos for example; no towers, no hand gestures, no STM Tattoos visible, four people max per photo.

The photos will air on CH 1.1 (for those of you without TV's they will air in the Rec. Building). After the show, we will make a schedule available of when photos will be aired. The photographers will take up to five photos per person and only in their row (there will be no re-takes or viewing of photos) this process should decrease wait time and allow you guys to really maximize your time with the cars and bikes.
