Questions and Answers

Here are the most asked questions when it comes to PREA:

1. How can I report a PREA allegation?

Answer: You can report an allegation to any staff member, the OIC, PREA grievance, PREA hotline, inmate communication and by third party.

2. If I use the PREA hotline or advocacy hotline are my calls confidential.

Answer: Yes, once you enter your pin number and press 9 for the PREA hotline or 711 to talk to a victim advocate, the phone system will not record the conversation or log that the number was called.

3. What is the buzzer sound I hear in all housing blocks, units and infirmary?

Answer: That buzzer sound is to make all inmates aware that a staff member of the opposite gender has entered the area.

4. Is there a resource outside of the institution I can talk to about PREA confidentially?

Answer: Yes, the Center for Hope and Safety is an advocacy group that is there for you 24/7.

The role of the advocate is to –

- Amplify the victim's voice
- Redirect victim blaming
- Provide emotional support
- Explain options for reporting
- Help victim process decision (not guide, recommend or suggest what is right)
- Provide resources and referrals
- Sit through forensic exam / investigatory interview if desired by the victim.
- Support family and friends of the victim

You can reach the advocate by dialing 711. The calls are confidential, not logged or recorded.

Single Cell Housing

All requests for Single Cell Housing must come through the Group Living Captain.

BHS and medical staff input, as well as facility needs, will be taken into account when deciding who to place into the single cells that become available.

Single cell housing priority will be:

1. Medical concerns
2. BHS concerns
3. Administrative concerns
4. Inmate convenience move requests

Once an inmate is housed in a single cell, if a higher priority placement concern occurs, the inmate may be removed. Issues with inmate conduct may result in removal from a single cell.

The Alternatives to Violence Project (AVP) is holding a beginning workshop on Friday, August 23 and Friday, August 30, 2019. It is a two-day, all day, workshop from 7:15 a.m. until 2:20 p.m., and again from 5:30 p.m. to 8:15 p.m. Participants need to be able to attend all day for both days. We can have four incentive level 1 participants. Everyone else needs to be level 2 or 3.

Participants learn and practice living a life of dignity and self-respect in a non-violent manner. If you would like to take part in this AVP beginning workshop, please send an inmate communication to AVP in Activities. We only have room for 17 AICs and three guests from the community; so do not delay in signing up. If you have other programs/work you can't miss, then please do not sign up. Caseload Reset

Correctional Counselors' caseloads have been rearranged in order to better serve those most in need. These changes are necessary if the Oregon Department of Corrections (DOC) is to provide quality case management services to the adults in custody (AIC) most likely to reoffend as determined by their Automated Criminal Risk Score (ACRS).

ACRS is a statistical calculation developed by the DOC Research Unit to predict your risk of reoffending within three years of release. Your score is automatically calculated at Coffee Creek Intake Center (CCIC) and is based upon the following: age, earned time, revocations, sentence length, custody number, thefts committed, prior incarcerations, and person to person crimes. The score is recalculated whenever any of these items change. Another way to understand ACRS is to look at it from a percentage standpoint. The scores range from .01 to .99. If your ACRS is .15, then you have an estimated 15% chance of reoffending within three years of your release.

If DOC had the resources it needed, Institution Counselors would provide cognitive interventions through case management to all AICs who need it. Because DOC does not have the capacity to provide case management services to everyone, Counselors' caseloads have been adjusted to provide cognitive interventions to AICs most likely to reoffend.

To make caseload sizes more manageable, DOC had to significantly adjust the ACRS cutoff score. Due to resource discrepancy across the institutions, the cutoff scores won't be consistent and are as follows:

SRCI, OSP, TRCI, EOCI

.01 - .24 ACRS = Low Supervision

.25 - ACRS and higher = High/Medium Supervision

OSCI

.01 - .34 = Low Supervision

.35 ACRS and higher = High/Medium Supervision

CRCI, DRCI, PRCF, SCCI, SCI, SRCI Minimum, TRCI Minimum

.01 - .34 = Low Supervision

.35 ACRS and higher = High/Medium Supervision

WCCF

.01 - .39 = Low Supervision

.40 ACRS and higher = High/Medium Supervision

MCCF, SFFC

.01 - .49 = Low Supervision

.50 ACRS and higher = High/Medium Supervision

CCCF, CCCM

.01 - .19 = Low Supervision

.20 ACRS and higher = High/Medium Supervision

Low Supervision:

If you are placed on a Low Supervision caseload (as determined by your institution), you will not meet with your Institution Counselor on a regular basis and will only be seen for emergencies or unusual circumstances. Any reporting will be through written communication. If you need an in-person meeting, you will need to provide specific details in your request.

Although you will not have regular contact with your Institution Counselor, your eligibility to attend programming offered by Pathfinders (group cognitive classes and parenting classes) and participate in our alcohol and drug treatment programs will not be impacted. Eligibility and placement into these programs remain the same.

High/Medium Supervision

If you are placed on a High/Medium Supervision caseload (as determined by your institution), you will meet with your Institution Counselor on a regular basis, working on your customized Behavior Change Plan and receive cognitive interventions from your counselor.

Each time you are transferred from one institution to another, you will receive an Intake Information Sheet and Contact/Resource List that provides information specific to that facility. You will also have the opportunity to ask questions at your institution's

Admission and Orientation program for new arrivals to help you manage your affairs during your incarceration.

These changes will be implemented June 1, 2019, for male institutions and July 1, 2019, for women at CCCF.
