Prison Rape Elimination Act

Questions and Answers

Here are the most asked questions when it comes to PREA:

1. How can I report a PREA allegation?

Answer: You can report an allegation to any staff member, the OIC, PREA grievance, PREA hotline, inmate communication and by third party.

2. If I use the PREA hotline or advocacy hotline are my calls confidential.

Answer: Yes, once you enter your pin number and press 9 for the PREA hotline or 711 to talk to a victim advocate, the phone system will not record the conversation or log that the number was called.

3. What is the buzzer sound I hear in all housing blocks, units and infirmary?

Answer: That buzzer sound is to make all inmates aware that a staff member of the opposite gender has entered the area.

4. Is there a resource outside of the institution I can talk to about PREA confidentially?

Answer: Yes, the Center for Hope and Safety is an advocacy group that is there for you 24/7.

The role of the advocate is to –

- Amplify the victim's voice
- Redirect victim blaming
- Provide emotional support
- Explain options for reporting
- Help victim process decision (not guide, recommend or suggest what is right)
- Provide resources and referrals
- Sit through forensic exam / investigatory interview if desired by the victim.
- Support family and friends of the victim

You can reach the advocate by dialing 711. The calls are confidential, not logged or recorded.

Single Cell Housing

All requests for Single Cell Housing must come through the Group Living Captain.

BHS and medical staff input, as well as facility needs, will be taken into account when deciding who to place into the single cells that become available.

Single cell housing priority will be:

1. Medical concerns
2. BHS concerns
3. Administrative concerns
4. Inmate convenience move requests

Once an inmate is housed in a single cell, if a higher priority placement concern occurs, the inmate may be removed. Issues with inmate conduct may result in removal from a single cell.

AIC Clothing

In the spirit of normalization the everyday dress code for AICs is being relaxed to allow for more personal choices in everyday attire. We have recently introduced a few clothing items from fundraisers for the facility. Below are some clarifications on the new items as well as some changes to existing guidelines.

- Pants are required to be worn on all job assignments except for the yard or as determined by OCE.
- Blue tank tops may not be worn in visiting or on work assignments, or as determined by OCE.
- Gray slippers are for in-cell use only.
- Blue/white thermal tops may be worn anywhere except visiting.
- Hats may be worn anywhere.
- Approved religious medallions may be worn outside a shirt.
- Shirts may be worn untucked.

Dressing the Part / Appropriate Attire

The way that we dress and how we present ourselves speaks volumes about who we are and what we do as individual people. There are times and places where appropriate dress makes a difference and how you present yourself can make a lasting first impression. This is true in our communities, including our ODOC communities. We are committed to helping individuals prepare for successful re-entry into our communities outside of ODOC facilities, and dressing appropriate to the occasion is a part of that. The purpose of this is to assist you in establishing and maintaining a first impression someone has of you, whether you are attending interviews, a class, a counseling session, an event, or participating in recreational activities. To that end, we ask that you dress the part. We ask that when you are attending an interview, going to a class, or to a meeting with someone, that you don't show up in your work-out clothes. We ask that you reserve your shorts and tank-tops for those recreational activities, and be mindful that the way we present ourselves impacts our success in life and the relationships that we build along the way. The staff within OSP want you to be successful inside and outside the walls. Please be mindful of where you are going and what you are wearing. You never know when that first impression could lead to a bigger opportunity down the road.
