Housing Fire Code Compliance

Earlier this month Mr. Stephen reached out to the population via Walled Street Bulletin asking you all to remove the plastic, cardboard and anything taped or fixed to the bars. We also requested the removal of privacy screens or anything that could affect the line of sight to the Housing Unit Staff. In addition, we are now asking for the removal of anything attached to the walls aside from the permanently-afixed shelving, mirrors and cork boards.

In an effort to be transparent, the State Fire Marshal has tasked the State (all institutions) to come into compliance with our own rule which in turn aligns us (the State) to be in compliance with the Fire Code. I am sure you have heard rumors that we will be addressing the excess property issues we have here. As we move forward in getting into compliance, we will continue to send communication on what that will look like. Housing Unit Staff have been directed to address the above-mentioned items. We are strategizing different options for storage that keep us in compliance and give you better options to store your property. In the meantime, if you have an excessive amount of property, I would encourage you to go through it and downsize on your own. We will be putting a plan together that will streamline your ability to have it sent out or picked up by a family member. If you have questions and wish to discuss this, please feel free to reach out to me. Thanks.

Clothing Room Information

Clothing Room operates showers at various times that are call-out only. No one who is not on a pre-approved turnout or who has not received staff authorization to be in the Clothing Room are allowed to come to the Clothing Room and ask for clothing or other items. There are designated line movements for this, as well as mainline showers.

If an emergency item is needed, special clothing or bedding needs can be addressed by using call pass from your housing unit or during the afternoon yard line movement. These include, but are not limited to, boot issue, clothing replacement, and/or bedding. Clothing Room Staff will immediately begin issuing conduct orders and/or misconduct reports for AICs who come to the Clothing Room without authorization.

Further, clothing room is not accepting any more applications at this time.

CHAPEL

As many of you may have heard, we are slowly restarting our Chapel service schedule after a more than two-year hiatus. The plan is to run only religious services at this time. We are not able to do religious studies at this time. This means we cannot do Bible studies, book studies, or discussion groups. However, please try to think back to the religious programming you were involved with in the past. If you are interested, please send the Chapel a communication, and we will get you added to that group. We are currently running Roman Catholic services, Lutheran services, Agape services, NOI and SUNNI Jumma prayer, Buddhist services, outside Asatru service, and outside Native American smudge. We hope to restart very soon Calvary chapel, Jehovah Witness services, and LDS (Mormon) services. Gradually more groups will be added as we are able to process the needed paperwork for religious volunteers. Send an AIC communication form to the Chapel if you have questions on what services are restarting. We will still do masking and keep a six-foot distance while in Chapel.
