Staff/AIC Spotlight

Counselor Abbott

This is Counselor Abbott. She's been working at TRCI for almost 23 years. "I have seen a lot of growth within the department and the ability to offer new tools and skills to my clients (AIC's). I currently offer a cognitive program called The Art of Communication, which is a 12-week program to help learn tools to effectively communicate during conflict. I am a staff mentor to the STRIVE mentorship group and believe in Peer-to-Peer interaction to help with growth and change. Every person can grow and make positive change to find peace and joy within their life." We greatly appreciate Ms. Abbott's inspiring and encouraging contributions to our TRCI community.

Mural Painters

AIC Jason Cizek was asked by staff how we could cultivate positive change within TRCI through art. Roughly 18 months later the mural program was born. Its mission was to inspire fellow AIC's creative minds by changing the mundane colors we see everywhere. Mr. Cizek is part of a group of AIC muralists, who include Michael White, Damien Strength, and John Hermann. These men have volunteered countless hours to offer a lasting and colorful impact to our community.

Quote of the month: "Keep away from people who belittle your ambitions. Small people always do that, but the really great make you feel that you, too, can become great." – Mark Twain

Prison Rape Elimination Act (PREA Information)

The Oregon Department of Corrections (ODOC) has a zero tolerance policy for sexual abuse, sexual harassment and for retaliation for reporting an incident. You may report in person to any staff, through an inmate communication, through the grievance system, by calling the PREA hotline by dialing 9 from any inmate phone.

Filing an Anonymous PREA Report

If you are uneasy about filing a PREA allegation, you may file an anonymous report with an outside agency.

You may write to:

Governor's Constituent Services Office
900 Court Street NE, Suite 254
Salem, Oregon 97301

Please indicate in the beginning of your letter you are filing a PREA allegation and you are requesting to remain anonymous. The Governor's Office will refer all anonymous allegations to the DOC PREA Coordinator to assure an investigation is completed based off the information that is provided.

Community-Based PREA Advocacy (Support) Program

ODOC has partnered with community based, confidential advocates of sexual abuse victims to provide services to inmates.

Inmates at ODOC who have experienced sexual abuse may reach a community-based advocate by dialing 711 inmate telephone systems, or may request a private call through the PREA Compliance Manager at the facility. Advocates provide victims of sexual abuse information about their options, resources, information and emotional support. There is no charge for calls to advocates.

Role of an Advocate:

- ☞ Provide confidential support and crisis intervention
- ☞ Inform you about the investigation and medical examination process
- ☞ Educate you about healing from sexual abuse
- ☞ Offer resources and referrals

Advocates will:

- ☞ Not tell you what to do
- ☞ Not communicate with the institution unless you request them to do so and sign a release
- ☞ Not provide legal advice

Community-based advocacy centers provide sexual abuse support to people of all genders. Community-based advocates will not report unless you request them to do so and if you sign a release of information.

DOC is committed to providing inmates with avenues to seek assistance. Below are additional resources:

Just Detention International Headquarters
3325 Wilshire Blvd., Suite 340
Los Angeles, CA 90010

The community-based advocacy crisis line is for individuals needing assistance coping with sexual abuse related issues and should not be used for other purposes.

Telephone calls and mail with community-based advocacy centers is considered privileged communication and will be handled similar to legal calls/official mail.

If you have any other questions regarding PREA, you may ask any staff member, write the PREA Compliance Manager at your institution, or you may write:

E. Sage, PREA Coordinator
Oregon Department of Corrections
2575 Center St. NE
Salem, Oregon 97301
